TACTICAL FACTORS

A tactic is a plan that is made before you start playing in a game which considers your own or your opponents' strengths and weaknesses. An attacking tactic is a game plan made up before or during a game to break down opposition defence or to score. Tactics are usually made up of individual tactics, group tactics and team tactics.

- Individual Tactics tactics of players individually, running into space, getting back to do defensive work, moving into intelligent areas to receive the ball, creating space to score etc
- Group tactics groups of players such as defensive unit working together, defence and cover defence, midfield unit, attacking and defensive midfielders working together
- Team tactics is the player as beneficial and efficient to the team as he can be

PSYCHOLOGICAL FACTORS

The psychological component is one of the most important but forgotten factors in succeeding in football. The ability to listen to coaches and execute training drills is of utmost importance in game situations. Discipline, dedication, determination, confidence and punctuality make up the scoring for this fundamental factor of performance.
